PAYMENT OPTIONS/POLICY (REVISED AUGUST 2018)

1. Prepaid Funeral Contract. This is the simplest and most cost-efficient way to pay for final expenses. We also accept and honor all prepaid funeral contracts made at other funeral homes.
2. Check, Cash, or Credit Card. PAYMENT IN FULL is due within 10 days of the arrangements, after which late fees will be assessed, which is explained on the Statement of Funeral Goods and Services.
3. Existing Life Insurance Policy(s). Because life insurance claims are not paid within 10 days, and can be very time consuming and complicated, we utilize an assignment company of which there is a fee associated. However, we do accept policies in good standing as payment without the family having to pay out of pocket or be burdened with extra paperwork. The policy must be verified prior to placing an obituary or scheduling services.
4. Loan. If you need to make monthly payments, you can apply for a "Tribute Loan" by clicking on the "Tribute Pay" link on our website. The application takes about five minutes and you get an answer almost immediately.

THE OSBORNE-WILLIAMS GUARANTEE

We are committed to service beyond expectation before, during and after the ceremonies. We guarantee that if you are not 100 percent satisfied with any aspect of our service, we will make every effort to correct the situation. If we cannot correct it to your satisfaction, you will not be charged for that particular service and/or merchandise item.

THE OSBORNE-WILLIAMS CREMATION STANDARDS OF CARE

The basic needs of families and the basic services provided by our funeral home are the same whether a family chooses burial or cremation. Cremation is simply another form a disposition, and a public viewing can still be held. The only difference is: the body is taken to the crematory after the service, rather than the cemetery.

When a family chooses a Direct Cremation, meaning the body is cremated prior to any services, we firmly believe in a Private Time to Say Good-Bye. This can be done without embalming, while preserving the dignity of the deceased. Our standards of care include:

- The basic services of the funeral director and staff should be extended to all families we are privileged to serve.
- We take all possible steps to assure the proper identification of the individual being cremated; either an immediate or extended family member, or friend can insure proper identification.
- Stringent identification follows the individual being cremated through basic care and cremation services.
- The integrity and respect of human dignity for both the decedent and the person making the identification, is a vital part of our service.

At Osborne-Williams, we offer a level of service that you may not find at most funeral homes, called our Signature Cremation Service, which includes:

- Basic, preparatory care of the deceased, such as bathing, hygienic care, setting features, and dressing.
- Placement in appropriate cremation container, or reposed on a dressing table with tasteful drapery.
- A private, family identification viewing, limited to a number of people and for a limited amount of time. This can be held in our main viewing area.
- Appropriate ceremonies to recognize and celebrate a life lived.

Our standards may result in a fee for services greater than those charged by our colleagues. While we cannot speak to the standards and procedures of other firms, we can speak with confidence about the care, respect, and dignity provided to all families we are privileged to serve. There are many factors that influence the choice of a funeral home, such as reputation, integrity, service, price and standards of care. If price is your only consideration, we may not be your best choice. If you take everything into consideration, you will find us to be an excellent selection and an excellent value. Our services, standards, and ceremonies are truly exceptional.
